

GAMEPOINT VOLLEYBALL

Club Code of Conduct

- Athletes are expected to be committed to the program and to be respectful of their coaches and teammates at all times.
- To encourage responsibility, players are responsible for notifying coaches of an absence from practice, team event, or tournament- not their parents.
- Academics and study are the priority before sports.
- Players will notify the coaches of any tournament conflict at the Parent Meeting before the season starts.
- No player, parent, or coach shall make any disparaging remark(s) about, or gesture toward another player, team, coach, or official. This includes any and all social media outlets.
- GAMEPOINT VOLLEYBALL has a “zero tolerance policy” for alcohol consumption, smoking, vaping, or drug abuse.
- GAMEPOINT VOLLEYBALL will not tolerate any bullying or discrimination.
- No boys/men/male persons are permitted in player hotel rooms at any time.
- Players must not leave their room after the specified curfew time and will adhere to all rules regarding phones at curfew and meals.
- Players and parents are responsible for leaving all gymnasiums clean upon exiting a playing/spectating/dining area.
- Players are responsible for leaving all hotel rooms clean. Any damage to a hotel room will be charged to all athletes and assigned to that room on an equally responsible basis, unless the athlete reports the party responsible for the damage immediately to the coach and prior to departure.
- Players will not make derogatory posts of any other player or coach on any social media nor will a player post any photograph of another player without that players’ permission. If requested to remove any post by another player or parent, the poster will comply with the removal request.
